

Wrens Shop Robbery – Update

5th September 2019

Case Against Daniel Sebastian Monk

At the hearing on 4th September 2019 at Salisbury Crown Court, Daniel Sebastian Monk pleaded “guilty” to the following charges:

1. Robbery
2. Possession of a knife/sharp pointed article in a public place – Criminal Justice Act 1988

The defendant has been remanded in custody.

The case has been adjourned to 17th October 2019 at Winchester Crown Court for Daniel Sebastian Monk to be sentenced and so that reports can be prepared to help the court decide upon an appropriate sentence.